OBITUARY.

Death of White Mills Resident.

Mary Eschenbrenner, wife of Jacob Haar, of White Mills, died on Tuesday morning from asthma, being afflicted with this disease during the past six years. The family, who resided a few years in Corning, N. Y., came to White Mills for the benefit of the wife's and mother's health with the hopes that the high altitude would relieve or cure her. Everything was done that loving and kind hands could do, but all to no avail, Mrs. Haar passing peacefully away early Tuesday morning. She was an affectionate mother and wife and will be greatly missed in the family circle. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's Magdalen's church on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Balta officiating. Interment will be made in the German Catholic cemetery, Honesdale.

Death of Carl Seelig.

Carl Seelig, for many years one of Honesdale's respected citizens, died at his home on Erie street Monday night, aged 74 years. He had been in failing health for about three years, his ailment being stomach trouble. Mr. Seelig was born in Germany and had been a resident of Honesdale for several years. He conducted a carting business, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death. The following children survive: Fred, Mrs. William Heine, Mrs. Susie Thum, all of New York city; George, of Newark; William and Rose at home, and Mrs. Chris Holl, Mrs. John Gumper, and Lewis Seelig, all of Honesdale. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning from the house on Erie street, Rev. C. C. Miller, of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, officiating. Interment will be made in the German Lutheran cemetery.

Death of Mrs. Kesler.

Maria Adams Kesler, widow of the late Dr. J. W. Kesler, died of pneumonia at her home on Main street Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, in her 84th year. Mrs. Kesler had been ill for the past two years, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. She was born in Delaware county, New York State, December 21, 1829. Her first husband was Munson Sherwood. Of the four children born to them, two sons, Millard and Frank, both of Honesdale survive. Her late husband, Dr. James Kesler, died in 1899. The deceased is survived by nine grandchildren. Since 1883 Mrs. Kesler has been a resident of Honesdale and during this time she made a number of dear friends who will greatly miss her. Mrs. Kesler was an attendant of the Honesdale Presbyterian church and her late pastor, the Rev. Dr. Swift will officiate at her funeral which will be held this Friday morning from her late home on Main street at 10 o'clock. Interment will take place in Glen Dyberry cemetery. Mrs. Kesler is also survived by five sisters and one brother, namely, Mrs. Amanda Hopkins, of Equinunk; Mrs. Laura Geers, of French Woods; Mrs. Julia Haines, of St. Mary's; Mrs. Alma Miller, of Driftwood, and Warner Adams, of Port Jervis.

When court convened on Saturday, March 15, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., Judge Searle announced that Court was in session specially to take action in the demurrer filed by John Wasman in the matter of the American Fraternal, if the matter had not been settled. Mr. Hoff handed the court a letter, which he stated was from Thomas B. Donaldson, deputy insurance commissioner. The letter was not read by Mr. Hoff nor its contents made known, but Mr. Hoff asked to have the argument put off until May 10, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., which was accordingly done by the court, in an order as follows:

"Now, to wit, March 15th, 1913, pursuant to an order made in the above entitled cause, on March 1, 1913, on motion of P. H. Hoff, solicitor for plaintiffs, the time for hearing the argument on the demurrer filed to plaintiff's bill, in this cause, by Joseph H. Wasman and John G. L. Wasman, is fixed for Saturday, May 10th, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., not less than 10 days' notice to be given to John G. L. Wasman and Joseph H. Wasman, and a copy of this order to be mailed addressed to P. E. Kilcullen, Esq., People's National Bank, Scranton, Pa., not less than 10 days before that date.

By the Court. It will be remembered that this case was up for argument on March 1, 1913, at which time Chas. P. O'Malley and P. E. Kilcullen, attorney for Scranton were present, and urged an argument of the matter that day, but upon motion of Mr. Hoff it was continued until March 15, 1913. It is unfortunate that this matter cannot be argued before the court and disposed of, for the reason that the purpose for which it is being continued from time to time does not appear.

Easter Novelties At C. W. Smith's.

Easter is here, so are we, with a fine line of novelties, including lamps, chickens, eggs, etc. Inspect our windows, then come inside.

Here is a Bank That Can Show Up the Proof.

To make a claim is one thing, to prove the claim is quite another proposition. For instance, there is the Wayne County Savings Bank which has had forty-two years of such remarkable success that it claims to be the leading financial institution of Wayne County. This institution presents an array of figures so impressive and forceful that the average reader can scarcely grasp their importance. While it has a capital of $200,000, to that amount is added the sum of $372,882, which represents the surplus and undivided profits of that bank, which brings the total capitalization of the institution up to considerably more than half a million dollars, in round number $572,882, which sum is the wonderful and ample security that is thrown about its army of depositors.

The Wayne County Savings Bank goes farther in its claims and proof by pointing to its deposits that amount to $2,522,724.91—nearly two and a half millions of dollars, and of total resources amounting to $3,105,072.87. Surely these claims and proof are worthy of the attention of Wayne County people who want absolute security where they deposit their savings, for if more security could possibly be desired, it is hard to conceive where and how it could be found.
